

In the Spotlight!
December 2024

Season's Greetings from Exceed Teaching School Hub.

This festive season, we proudly highlight pockets of excellence, showcasing exemplary ECTs, Mentors, and Induction Tutors. Happy Holidays!

Harrogate High School

Rose commends Finn for his exceptional instructional coaching and mentorship, helping ECTs excel and boosting the confidence of other coaches.

Farnham Primary School

Samantha praises Clare and Haley for their outstanding mentorship and support for ECTs, as well as Holly, James, and Halima for their incredible contributions.

Bankfoot Primary School

Hafiza is recognized for her creativity, collaboration, and dedication to fostering confidence and independence in young children through a nurturing learning environment.

Horton Grange Primary School

Natalie praises Matthew for his calm, purposeful learning environment and responsiveness to feedback, ensuring all learners' needs are met.

Bradford Academy

Abigail is celebrated as a caring, dedicated practitioner who earns the respect of students and staff alike. She thanks Mentor David and Induction Tutor Kully for their unwavering support, helping her rebuild confidence and excel in ECT2 despite challenges. Haider commends Joshua as an exceptional mentor, always available, supportive, and focused on coaching and development.

Idle CofE Primary

Joe commends Ridha for her hard work and positive contributions to school culture, making her a valued team member.

Leeds City Academy

Ayla highlights James stating, "it is a real privilege to see you flourish week after week. Your lessons are a delight to be in, and your students appreciate you so much. You are pro-active and reactive to feedback given, which is such a strength." Sara is also praised for her dedication to planning, delivery, and relationships with students, showcasing excellent ECT1 results.

Chellow Heights Primary School

Zakia recognises Anne for her consistent and excellent support.

Stocks Lane Primary School

Lucy highlights Linda for her tireless work, self-reflection, and proactive approach to professional growth. Linda's dedication to her students and the profession makes her a standout educator.

Newby Primary School

Adeena commends Gareth, the "Positive Praise King," for his kindness and attentiveness as a Head who is always ready to support and answer questions.

Carlton Mills Primary School

Abdullah highlights Rishi for his instructional coaching, helping embed effective behavioural routines and creating a safe, inclusive classroom environment that supports learning.

Carlton Primary School

Emma praises Hannah for becoming a key member of the school team. She manages challenge with professionalism and patience, leads the choir, communicates effectively with parents, and supports her phase team. A truly outstanding ECT.

Meadow Bank Community School

Emma commends Stacey and Farhana for their daily support, approachability, and invaluable advice, which have positively impacted her ECT second year.

Whingate Primary School

Leah shines in her second year as an ECT, demonstrating natural talent, hard work, and earning the admiration of her pupils.

Carlton Bolling

Zahid acknowledges Paul for his guidance and support, which have helped him adapt and learn quickly. Barney praises Sharnjeet for her unwavering support and availability, prioritising his needs and providing timely feedback that has shaped him into the teacher he is today.

Alder Tree Primary School

Sadie recognises Holly for her dedication in her first term, going above and beyond to help every child achieve their best. An excellent start to her career.

Newhall Park Community School

Alicia commends Lucy and Julie for their support and encouragement, helping her develop into an effective teacher despite facing a challenging first year.

Leeds City College Sixth Form

Monique highlights Reece for his patience, understanding, and constant encouragement, making her always feel supported.

Hollingwood Primary School

Sanya praises Rebecca for being an outstanding mentor who goes above and beyond, building her confidence and inspiring her to be the best teacher.

Five Lanes Primary School

Lewis commends Catherine for her kindness and support, helping him feel comfortable and at home after joining a new school.

Bradford College

Azraa highlights Huma for her caring nature and invaluable advice that improves her lessons.

Crossley Hall Primary School

Tracie celebrates Ellie, an ECT whose hard work and progress are exceptional. Her lessons are fantastic, and she's become a model for others despite being in just her fifth term.

Leeds City Academy

Laura praises Becky for her supportive leadership as a mentor and department head, always making work easier for the team.

Lady Lane Park

Amy highlights Julie as a selfless and caring mentor, consistently providing daily encouragement and support.

Poplars Farm Primary School

Charlotte commends Noreen for her patience, positivity, and willingness to share her expertise as a mentor.

New Park Primary School

Rob praises Evie as an exemplary ECT, dedicated to her pupils and the school ethos. Her innovative strategies and inclusive teaching create a thriving learning environment.

Feversham Girls' Secondary School

Samaria highlights Alvina for going the extra mile to provide support and consistently checking in to ensure her needs are met.

Bronte Girls' Academy

Bethan commends Lyndsay and Nusrat for their exceptional guidance and support throughout her ECT induction.

Keighley St. Andrews Primary School

Samantha thanks Michelle for her reflective, supportive mentor meetings, which have helped her transition smoothly into Key Stage 2.

St Stephen's CofE Primary School

Henna highlights Kelly and Helen who are full of positivity and simply great at what they do.